Dear Mrs Parlow,

one of my american pupils
gave me to read a collection of criticisms about Kathleen's tour in the English Provinces. - I find it would be much more interesting for the Americans to know what the Continent Said Press, Berlin, Leipzig, Copenhagen, etc. thinks of her talent. —

You are already in the Christmas holy days, and we have Concerts and Concerts as never so numerous. — Just on the New Year day (Yours)
I am condemned to play here the Tschaukowsky on the jubilee of the Russian classical society. —
Yesterday Bradsky, from

III
Manchester played it all Paganini's Concert.

It was a great disappointment!

The girls work very hard, the women is getting on very well; little Polikina arrives. And now good and a happy new year! Friends meet at America! Good bye for you, love. —

Yr. lover
